Last Messy Church

For “Jesus loves me” we had crafts of fizzy hearts, ring toss game, paper planes, heart sandwich, and spin art hearts. The spin art used a salad spinner to spread the paint over a heart—great fun to spin and paint at the same time without getting too messy. You can go to our web site to see more of the details and the questions that were used for each craft.

Rev Temukisa got us to sing “Jesus loves the little children” as she talked about how important it is to remember that Jesus does love us no matter what we do.

Feedback

Are you happy with the content of this newsletter? Would you like to see something included? Your suggestions are welcomed so please let Wayne know.

October Offering

The offering, which is taken each time, resulted in $36.00 for our Messy Church operating costs. Thank you.

Messy Church 2020

Consideration of the survey results by the Messy Church Team has happened. We have decided for February next year to trial starting at 4.30 pm and finish about 6.00 pm. The program will still be basically the same but we will try to incorporate some of the comments to do with the discussion questions for each craft/activity, the celebration service and how we publicise Messy Church.

Our theme for February will be "By the sea" recognising that Jesus started his ministry around the Sea of Galilee also called Lake Galilee. Being summer is a good time to look at this so think about what might be involved.

But can we ask that you encourage others to come along—recommendations from those already attending have more effect than a notice from us. If you think we can do something special to advertise more please let us know.

Next Messy Church

Sunday 8th December is our last Messy Church for the year. Because we are getting close to Christmas our theme is "Follow the star", so you can expect to see crafts that have stars involved in some way—you know that we use the theme in a very broad fashion so you might also see something a bit different.

Prayer List

Families who have given permission have been allocated to a member of the congregation who each month will include the family members in their prayers. If you want that person to pray for a specific situation/need please let Wayne know.
